We received a counter notification (below) in response to a copyright removal request that you submitted. A counter notification is a legal request for YouTube to reinstate a video that was removed due to a copyright removal request.

You have 10 US business days to reply to this counter notification. Your response must include evidence that you've taken legal action against the uploader to keep the content from being reinstated to YouTube. Usually, evidence would include a lawsuit against the uploader, which names the YouTube URL(s) at issue and seeks a court order to restrain the alleged infringement.

Evidence should be submitted by replying directly to this email. Do not send your reply to copyright@youtube.com.

After 10 US business days, if we don't get a response from you, the content at issue may be reinstated to YouTube. You can find more information about the legal action you must take and what evidence is acceptable in our Help Center.

Hello YouTube Team, I have checked many times and I confirm that 100% of the featured clips in this video are authorized by the owner before I use it. I still keep email and text messages to the owners for all featured clips so I can give you any time to confirm that I'm using the clips legally. I'm using highlight clips for my videos after I got permission from the original clips owner. So I don't know how this user submits copyright sticks on my videos. Also, I see this user is using the same email with 3 different names (Brian Emfinger; Reed Timmer; WxChasing) so I'm suspecting this user is abusing the copyright claim feature to send fake copyright sticks on my videos. I request this user to submit documents or proof to confirm the relationship of these 3 usernames as one person. If this user is unable to provide documents or proof regarding these 3 usernames, it means this user is abusing the copyright claim tool and using a fake name to destroy my channel. This is video information that needs to be checked and restored: Uploader: NA Weather Video url: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uXSYXdr4YtE> I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief the material was removed due to a mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled.
